

Global Leadership League

The Global Leadership League is an award-winning professional organization for women and their allies in international education, providing a platform for community, knowledge and dialogue.

League founders include Cynthia Banks, Sarah E. Spencer, Martha Johnson, Dawn Hewitt and Cori Filson. We have over 1000 global members, and are grateful to our advocate sponsors, including Forum on Education Abroad, IES, CIEE, University of Texas at Austin and Stanford University.

You may have heard about or already attended one of our events at EAIE, APAIE, Terra Dotta or NAFSA?

“The League is transforming the landscape of international education and our ability to have challenging conversations in radical ways. Instead of being excluded from this conversation, The League offers virtual and in person spaces to engage.” Dana Tottenham, Senior Associate Director, Global Internships, Emory University
